rarERLANGER, Va. -- A husband and wife are dead following a home invasion robbery in southeast Virginia. According to the Rockbridge County Sheriff's Office, a homeowner spotted three men in his house in the 700 block of Southwestern Drive on Tuesday. The three men ran away when the homeowner confronted them. Deputies say the homeowner went inside and found his wife shot in a bedroom. He then found the couple's 14-year-old son in the kitchen. The boy was also shot. The couple's 3-year-old daughter was not in the house at the time of the shooting. A neighbor told WTVR the boy's father often leaves the house for several hours at a time. The father told the neighbor he was a truck driver and was on a work route at the time of the shooting. Authorities say it appears the couple was targeted. The Rockbridge County Sheriff's Office says they are not looking for any suspects in this incident.

Cesaro Cesaro, Cesari, or Cesar (; 1370–1433) was an Italian condottiero and condottiere. He is best known as the first Margrave of Brandenburg-Neuenahr, a state in modern-day Brandenburg, Germany. He was also a prolific Italian poet. Biography Born in Monza, Cesaro was the son of Bartolomeo III, a condottiero and count of San Marco, and his wife Matilde. When he was three years old, Cesaro's father died and his uncle, Giovanni II Malatesta, took over the lordship of Monza and inherited the family estates. At the age of eight, Cesaro was sent to the court of the House of Este, where he was educated. In 1375 he moved to the court of Sigismund of Luxembourg, where he met his brother Bartolomeo. In 1377 he went to the service of the king of Hungary, Charles Robert, where he became known for his ability as a military commander. He distinguished himself particularly during the Hungarian-Silesian Wars (1382–1405) and the Hungarian-Ottoman Wars (1403–1411). He participated in the siege of Świdnica in 1392 and of Marienburg in 1395. He fought under John Zápolya in the Battle of Roznava in 82157476af
